Choose to Reuse - Help Save The Planet One Container At A Time

We've launched a new reusable to-go program at Lincoln Dining! These new containers allow you to take your meal to go, bring back the dirty container, swap for new, and dine again.

It's just $8.50 to participate for the whole semester!

To purchase your container, visit The Lincoln cashier. Containers are $8.50 and can be paid for with cash or Commons Cash.

Note: Carryout is not available at Lincoln from 8PM-10PM.

Frequently Asked Questions

Where do I buy my container?

From the check stand inside Lincoln Dining using cash, credit/debit or Commons Cash.

Where do I return my container?

At the check stand inside Lincoln Dining.

Can I skip the fee and bring my own reusable container?

No, sorry. Due to health codes only our approved containers are allowed to be used in this program.

Do I have to wash my container before returning?

No, we simply ask that you empty and rinse the container before returning. We will wash and sanitize, and inspect all containers before reuse.

Are the containers microwave safe?

Yes.

What happens if I break or lose my container?

Lost or damaged containers can be replaced for $8.50.

Is this program only for students?

No! All diners are welcome to participate.
